Joseph Drouhin

2000 – Charm and Elegance

WHITES: the harvest was beautiful. Honey and fruity aromas with hints of dried fruit. A higher acidity than in 1999 enhances the fresh notes. All appellations are very pleasant to drink now. Montrachet is magnificent.

REDS: with their very pure, expressive pinot, these wines are refined, full of charm, seductive, supple, flowing, they have evolved nicely. To drink now.

Frédéric DROUHIN
October 8th 2001